

Training agreement

Remington Pet Ranch wholeheartedly agrees to the following:

- To put our very best efforts into training your dog.
- To treat your dog with the utmost respect and develop a bond built on trust.
- To only use positive reinforcement training techniques.
- To provide timely updates on your dog's progress.
- To assist you in being the best handler you can be.
- To provide honest feedback.

You enthusiastically agree to the following:

- To be honest with our training staff regarding your dog's history, home life and behavior issues.
- To follow the drop off and pick up times associated with Day School.
- To consistently train your dog daily at home.
- To be diligent in keeping your post training follow up lessons.
- To be open to constructive feedback and embrace a willingness to learn.

By understanding and adhering to these expectations, you play an integral role in your dog's training journey, contributing to their overall success and well-being. Your partnership and commitment are essential in achieving positive outcomes and fostering a harmonious relationship between you and your pup.
